

---

Assistant Professor, Natural Resources Recreation

Location: Blacksburg, Virginia

Type of Appointment: Twelve-month, tenure-track

Responsibilities: Teaching and research in natural resources recreation planning and management:

- Teach undergraduate course(s) in natural resources recreation
- Teach graduate-level course(s) related to research interests
- Conduct research and publish the results in refereed literature
- Acquire external grants and contracts to fund an innovative research program
- Advise undergraduate students and supervise graduate students
- Participate in outreach programs of the department and college
- Participate in university service and governance

Qualifications: Required: Ph.D. with emphasis in recreation management and planning.
Desired: At least one degree in a renewable natural resources-related discipline, interests in the human dimensions of natural resources, and/or interests in environmental education.

Salary: Commensurate with education and experience

Deadline: February 2, 2004, or until a suitable candidate is selected

Starting Date: Negotiable, with a target of July 1, 2004

Application Procedure: Send letter of interest, vita, transcripts, and names and addresses of five references to:

Dr. Joseph W. Roggenbuck
Virginia Tech Department of Forestry
304 Cheatham Hall (0324)
Blacksburg, VA 24061 U.S.A.
E-mail: jroggenb@vt.edu
Telephone: (540) 231-7418 Fax: (540) 231-3698

---

Virginia Tech has a strong commitment to the principle of diversity and, in that spirit, seeks a broad spectrum of candidates, including women, minorities, and people with disabilities. Individuals with disabilities desiring accommodations in the application process should notify Harold E. Burkhart, Head, Department of Forestry (540-231-6952 Voice/1-800-828-1120 VTRS), by the application deadline.